

PATZ & HALL

WINE REVIEW ONLINE

“When a Creature of Habit Breaks with Tradition”

“Every good host aims to please on Thanksgiving Day, and you are serving up conviviality as much as anything else.

This is one occasion that screams out for a rich Chardonnay... Other outstanding chardonnays for this stage of the feast include many of my current favorites... the Patz & Hall Napa Valley Chardonnay...

For red wine, I am particularly prone to hauling Pinot Noir out of the cellar at Thanksgiving... Currently on my radar are the exceptional... and Patz & Hall 2005 Chenoweth Ranch Pinot Noir out of the Russian River Valley.”

- Robert Whitley
October 9, 2007