

PATZ & HALL

Wine Review Online

2006 HYDE VINEYARD Carneros Chardonnay

“Patz & Hall’s Hyde Vineyard Chardonnay from '06 is yet another success from this stellar Carneros vineyard. Still young and tight, the signature elements of lemon cream, spice and hazelnut are a bit muted at this stage but it’s abundantly clear they merely require a bit more bottle age. This vintage shows measured oak notes and a scintillating thread of minerality that offers the promise of spectacular evolution. Patience will be rewarded.”
