

PATZ & HALL

Wine Spectator

Tasting Highlights: California Chardonnay 18 outstanding new Chardonnays from Sonoma, Carneros, Monterey and more

“This collection of new-release California Chardonnays demonstrates how well this grape excels in so many different appellations along with a diversity of style. This group also crosses a wide range of price points, with many good values...Patz & Hall has two excellent choices from 2006: an Alder Springs from Mendocino and a Hudson Vineyard from Carneros.”

2006 HUDSON VINEYARD

Carneros Chardonnay

“Fruit-driven and focused, with green and yellow apple and honeydew melon at the core. Medium- to full-bodied, with subtle hints of hazelnut-tinged oak on the finish. Drink now through 2014.”

92 Points!

2006 ALDER SPRINGS VINEYARD

Mendocino Chardonnay

“Complex and full-bodied, with toasty oak, fig, apricot and ripe apple scents that are intense and focused, ending with a lingering finish. Drink now through 2012.”

90 Points!