

PATZ & HALL

California Grapevine

2007 Chenoweth Ranch Russian River Pinot Noir

“Medium-light to medium ruby; attractive, smoky, spicy, cedary, herbal, very ripe cherry fruit aroma with toasty notes and hints of clove and rhubarb; medium-full body; forward, plush, plummy, strawberry and ripe cherry fruit flavors with hints of cinnamon and milk chocolate; well balanced; medium-full tannin, lingering aftertaste. Developed with airing in the glass. Very highly recommended.”

Group Score: 16.3
My Score: 17 [90/100]
Fourth Place

-Nick Ponomareff
March 4, 2010