

PATZ & HALL

The Wine Advocate

“For the past twenty years, Patz & Hall has been one of California’s finest negociant firms, accessing top quality fruit and vinifying and bottling their wines with minimal intervention. The following efforts represent the finest wines I have tasted from them in many years.”

2007 Dutton Ranch Russian River Valley Chardonnay

“The 2007 Dutton Ranch, Russian River Valley Chardonnay exhibits a more buttery, caramel, and hazelnut-scented style, and in that sense, it harkens back to the older style of California Chardonnays. This broad, full-bodied, rich, bone dry effort reveals more oak than in some of its siblings.”
