The Wine Advocate

“For the past twenty years, Patz & Hall has been one of California’s finest negociant firms, accessing top quality fruit and vinifying and bottling their wines with minimal intervention. The following efforts represent the finest wines I have tasted from them in many years.”

2007 Pisoni Vineyard Santa Lucia Highlands Pinot Noir

“From a well-known site in the Santa Lucia Highlands, the 2007 Pisoni Vineyard, Santa Lucia Highlands Pinot Noir exhibits lots of blueberry, smoke, raspberry, apple skin, forest floor, and rhubarb characteristics as well as very good acidity and medium body. Not quite the powerhouse of some of its peers, it is a delicious Pinot to consume over the next 4-6 years.”
