

PATZ & HALL

Ellen on Wine

Gems In My Glass

“A recent enjoyable trip to Napa Valley confirmed once again the quality and consistency of wines that are crafted by winemakers in this premium wine producing region. Amidst winter rain drenched vineyards and cozy tasting rooms, a host of impressive wines were unveiled.”

2007 Jenkins Ranch Russian River Pinot Noir

“Aromas of spicy cherry compote fill the nose and the cinnamon, clove and allspice notes hold enticingly through the palate alongside succulent red and black raspberries, fresh cherries and a generous level of acidity. Silky and ethereal with a magnificent flavor profile from the beginning through the memorable aftertaste.”

-Ellen Landis
March 2010