

PATZ & HALL

The Miami Herald

Chards Charge to the Top

“Thirty-four years after the ‘tasting heard ‘round the world,’ California chardonnay continues to evolve. And improve. After 20 years of growing its chardonnay in the Napa Valley, Patz & Hall has switched to the cooler Sonoma coast, seeking crisper acids and more minerality.”

2008 Sonoma Coast Chardonnay

“Aromas of camellias with hints of oak, flavors of white peaches, mangoes and minerals, crisp and silky.”

Highly Recommended

- Fred Tasker
June 24, 2010