Sonoma Valley Chardonnay

THE STAR-LEDGER (NEW JERSEY)

“Variety of wines will heighten holiday spirits”

“For a white wine, your safest bet is probably chardonnay. Just about anyone who drinks white wine can appreciate a well-made chardonnay, either as something to sip with an hors d'oeuvre or appetizer before dinner or with the main meal.

If you're in the mood to splurge, look for a classic California chardonnay such as the... or 2005 Patz & Hall Durell Vineyard Chardonnay.”
